New. York, March 18th 1858

Dear Sir,

I am really sorry of all the trouble I give you. Messrs Kretzmer & Co have their shop and office No 37, South 10th Street corner of Chestnut. All Jewelers in Philadelphia are well acquainted with them, and their office is on the first floor. Rather than to give you the trouble of going to them again, you might keep the articles like I go to Philadelphia or send for them, or send them back to me by mail, as you prefer.

If these little balls have any value in your eyes on account of the novelty of the metal, you would much oblige me by keeping at least one of them. I am sorry to say their commercial value is very trifling, I only take the liberty to offer them to you on account of the scientific interest you may attach to them.

Very respectfully yours,

Victor Bishop

Professor J. C. Booth
